

.....
We're bringing the ZOO TO YOU!
.....

HORNBILL

NEAT NESTING

Hornbills have a unique way of making a nest almost predator-proof! Breeding pairs find a tree hollow for the female to lay eggs in. The female then seals herself in with the eggs using mud and spit, leaving only a small hole. The male will bring her food through this tiny opening!

Lead the hornbill to the nest!

