

We're bringing the

ZOO TO YOU!

JAGUAR

PERSONAL PATTERN

Can you judge a jaguar by its spots? A jaguar's spots, known as "rosettes," help it to blend in with its environment so that it can sneak up on its prey. The rosette pattern is unique to each jaguar and scientists can identify the individual jaguar in the wild based on its rosettes.

Can you find the jaguar in the jungle?

