

REID PARK ZOO

VIRTUAL EARTH DAY 2021

To protect the Earth, we must first love the Earth. Build your positive relationship with nature, have fun, and get some exercise by going on a nature treasure hunt.

NATURE TREASURE HUNT

Location: Outdoors and Indoors*

Suggested age: Everyone

SEARCH A BACKYARD, WASH, URBAN TRAIL, OR OTHER OUTSIDE AREA FOR THESE ITEMS:

- SMOOTH ROCK
- BUMPY ROCK
- STICK THAT LOOKS LIKE A SNAKE
- SEED POD
- TREE BARK
- FALLEN LEAF
- SOMETHING RED
- SOMETHING THAT MAKES A NOISE
- SOMETHING A BEE WOULD ENJOY

Collect items ahead of time and hide inside for indoor nature fun. Never collect in areas where natural materials are protected or where rules clearly state that collecting is not allowed. This includes private property, national, state, and private parks/beaches, nature preserves like Audubon Society and the Nature Conservancy, or other management areas.

Challenge level:

Move like an animal to find each treasure

- Hop like a kangaroo
- Stomp like an elephant
- Waddle like a duck
- Create your own animal movement

Tell us about it!
